Hello Spiritual Healers as well as seekers and those in search of divine information.

While your here check out some very cool:

Crop Circles that I have decoded from the divine while your here. I think you will find the messages behind them very enlightening

Mayan Calendar

We are currently in the 6th day of the Mayan Galactic Underworld, our connection with our right brain is wide open, the separation of ourselves from duality and linear time is becoming much more pronounced in our daily lives, can't you feel it? Can't you see it? It's the time to grab what is yours by birthright! Just reach out and grab it, take ahold, suspend any belief and pay attention to what is right in front of you in plain sight!

I hope that you are loved and in your center for this beautiful day! I have decided to use this blog as the place to publish my writings related to ascension for now. I am a simple human being who in recent times has been gifted with great insights and power that I have been instructed to share with as many people as possible.

Our DNA and energy bodies are being heavily upgraded and for good reason as I touch on shortly.

From an evolutionary standpoint this is a most amazing time to be alive. We are the first human beings to have experience a turnover of a Mayan underworld since 1755! In 1999 (Jan 5th to be exact) we switched from the Planetary into the Galactic underworld. The Planetary underworld had been progressing since the end of the National underworld in 3115 BC! Each new underworld is 20 times smaller than the previous, the upcoming and final turnover of the Universal underworld will only last for 260 days!

No matter what your views on the Mayans or the "Calleman vs Arguelles" debate it can't be denied that these are amazing times to be alive! We are going to experience 2 underworld turn overs! I believe these turnovers make available to us massive amounts of information that we process through our bodies and minds. It's no wonder time has seemed to increase at a monstrous pace since 1999, the amount of information that we have been processing I think is the same amount of information we processed from 1755 to 1999! With that in mind picture a similar volume of information that you will download into our bodies in 2011 and, furthermore we will have only 260 days to process! It seems to me we will be using these "hardware" upgrades to our DNA and energy bodies like crazy once the final underworld download is underway.

Of course not everyone will be able to go along for the ride, many of us will cling to the duality to which we have known for so long. Many who choose this path will be our loved ones and friends, this is inevitable. Those who wish to be bound forever to the earth will get their wish. For those of us who want to take advantage of this chance to ascend off the surface of this planet, to be united with the fifth dimensional energies from which many of us come from, now is the time, seize the moment!

Your guides are waiting for you, all you have to do is ask them to show you the path that is already laid out before you.

I will be sharing with you the tools and methods I have been given that allow me to balance my energies, receive the messages and tools necessary to do my work and continue to upgrade my “hardware”. I don’t consider myself a spiritual leader or guru for that matter. I am one of many spiritual healers what has been asked of me which is to bring angelic energy into this plane of existence and to assist others at finding their path, their guides and, help them develop tools and relationships that will allow them to better themselves and others.

I’ve been gifted to help myself and others using water to heal and balance the body and mind. Water is an amazing carrier of information and I will be writing more about my discoveries and use of water.

I came into healing with water from my work with dowsing. One day I was at the library and this book “called” out to me, it happened to be a book on dowsing written by a “good old boy” who was using dowsing to find deer for hunting and many other uses including healing. I didn’t know at the time what doors this little book would open up for me.

I have since been working with dowsing Auras and the Chakra systems of the body. It’s an amazing way to repair and balance your energy systems to quickly restore your energy and physical body to health and vitality. The greatest thing is it requires very little psychic energy and, I can do it from great distances. If your feeling out of “whack” and are interested drop me a line, I would be honored to help you. I will be sharing more about dowsing as well in my coming writings.

In most recent times I have found as I continue to raise my vibrations and progress towards ascension many people in my life are being pushed away from me due to the shifts in my energy body. The laws of attraction are very powerful and play a large role our lives so that we may attract others with whom will serve and help us along our path. The same can be said for others who are attracted to us. Sometimes it’s hard to accept the outcome and, I often find myself longing for more close relationships but, I also must remember that everything that I need today I already have. This is the basis for gratitude which, we must always be willing to give and show in every moment in everything we do. When we acknowledge that we have enough we keep the doors open for new opportunities and growth. It’s more important now than ever to keep your wants and desires to be centered in a state of gratitude by simply saying “I have enough today”. As we maintain a mindful gratitude our vibrations will continue to rise and, we will be able to spend greater amounts of time in nurturing light.

As my vibration has raised I have noticed that I am naturally attracted to those with higher vibrations. They seem to just pop out of nowhere. As I said in that Park on that sunny Portland afternoon recently during that time I came in telepathic contact with at least 3 individuals of a high light vibration.

This was apparent and clear as when they passed and we made eye contact they seemed to pop out of the backdrop of the 5 sense realm. I got to thinking, with my quest for deeper relationship it's much easier to seek others who have the "bar" raised at my level or more than it is to attempt to have others raise their energies up to my level. Don't get me wrong here, I'm not saying I'm some high energetic guru and above anyone, this isn't about status, it's about vibration. A while back when I was doing a lot of internet marketing one of the big successful teachers said something with regards to his success he talked about raising the bar of people around you. I have found there is a lot of truth to be said about that, if you surround yourself with people who are where you want to be instead of where you already are you greatly increase your ability to generate a shift in your life.

Finally I would like to invite you to check out my cropcircles decodation page on facebook. A few months ago I was at a festival listening to a presentation about crop circles and how some circles have included ASCII code that has been deciphered into various messages. That got me to wondering if every crop circle maybe is relaying some sort of message on a ultra high frequency that reaches into our minds. So, I started asking about certain circles and the messages they may contain and I was amazed as to what I got back. Some of these circles I have decoded you can check out on my page.

I'll wrap this up by saying I'm no guru, I have nothing to prove or debate. I'm here to offer up information that is coming out of my head, how you choose to use it or not, is up to you. Thanks for reading.
